VIRTUAL ADVISING APPOINTMENTS

Starting Week 3, newly scheduled virtual advising appointments will be held for 20 minutes instead of 30 minutes. This change is done to increase the number of appointments offered so more students can be seen on a weekly basis.

You can use the following link to schedule your virtual advising appointment.

Please come prepared for your advising appointment to ensure to maximize your meeting time by reviewing the course, major, and/or minor requirements for each major and/or minor you are interested in.

REMOTE WORK HOURS

All advising will be provided virtually for Winter 2022 Quarter.

Due to Chancellor Khosla's announcement in response to the anticipated increase in new COVID-19 cases, Music Department staff will be working remotely from Monday, January 3rd through and including Friday, January 28th.

We are expected to begin returning to campus on Monday, January 31st.

We ask for and appreciate your continued patience and understanding as circumstances continue to be subject to change.

For more information about returning to campus safely please review the following health alert from the Office of the Vice-Chancellor for Student Affairs.
